Opyo Floor Lamp by KDLN

The Opyo floor lamp was designed by Cristina Celestino in 2019 and is influenced by nature. The lampshade resembles a poppy before it blooms, with a gorgeous, curvaceous silhouette and an intriguing shape that sits on top. The shade is made from opal white glass which diffuses the light and creates a warming glow.

The floor lamp is accented by a slender brass stem and coloured top and bottom which is available in 3 colours, white, brass and coral. The Opyo floor light also has a dimmer switch, allowing you complete control. The floor light can be used to create a cosy ambience or can be used as a useful reading lamp. Use in lounges, bedrooms and more to add an elegant touch to your interior with a sophisticated and stylish design.
