Void LED Pendant Light by Tom Dixon

The Void LED pendant is made from metal which has a highly reflective surface that appears metallic. A stylish and luxurious pendant lamp, the Void is inspired by vacuum flasks and has a beautiful rounded shape. The integrated LED light source produces a long-lasting and effective glow perfect for many settings, and will be a wonderful addition to any interior.

The Void LED pendant lamp is available in 3 gorgeous finishes, copper, brass or steel and in 2 sizes, the mini or regular, so you can find the right fit and colour for your space. You can use in multiple or alone to suit your needs, with the pendant particularly thriving when hung over tables and surfaces.

Please note, that the LED ring is non-replaceable
