Artemide Nessino Table Lamp

Until June 1st, each order of the Artemide Nessino Table Lamp will include a free exclusive Artemide tote bag - while stocks last!

The smaller version of the classic and original Nesso table lamp, the Nessino was also designed by Giancarlo Mattioli in 1967. The table lamp met the same success as its predecessor. A minimalist design that still gives recognition to the 1960s vibes. The diffuser and body are both in polycarbonate, while the light source emits a diffused and direct light.

The lamp, with a smaller body than the Nesso, fits just about everywhere in your home and is available in a range of finishes all of which validate its bold statement. In 2024 Artemide introduced four new vibrant finishes; Blue, Light Blue, Green, and Yellow - as well as a sleek Black.
