Miconos Wall Light by Artemide

A conversation starter, the Miconos wall light was designed to become an accent piece in your decor. The Miconos collection was designed by Ernesto Gismondi, the founder of Italian lighting brand Artemide. Miconos is the epitome of Artemide's know how, both in design and technology. A blown glass, transparent diffuser with chrome plated metal details. The emphasis is on the bulb, with an industrial take on it; exposed cables, angled light source and transparent glass. The collection also includes a suspension and ceiling light.
