Cosmic Leaf by Artemide

Instantly recognised as one of Ross Lovegrove's designs, the Cosmic Leaf lamp has a natural flow as if frozen in time. The choice of material attributes the lamp to an almost digital, if not cosmic form. Lovegrove commented on the lamp which he describes as "embedded with scales like a reptile or an insect that absorb light and shadow on their body to attract a mate". Cosmic Leaf is a true work of art, a sculpture that emits direct light, refracted on a leaf-like surface.
