PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Jasper Morrison

Smithfield Ceiling Light by Flos

A timeless design by Jasper Morrison for Flos, the Smithfield ceiling light provides direct and diffused light. Named after the same London market which inspired the name, the Smithfield ceiling lamp has a large yet shallow profile allowing it to fit into small spaces with low ceiling height, despite its size.

Ideal for use in kitchens or in a workspace, this ceiling light is available in glossy green, glossy red, glossy black, mud, white and matt black. The Smithfield collection also includes a suspended pendant version, both in LED and retrofit options.
