Aura GR Ceiling Light by Axolight

A classic light in Axolight's collection, the Aura ceiling light was created by prominent designer Manuel Vivian. Vivian is considered an expert in artisan production processes, and the Aura is a true example as it is made of Murano glass. The glass makers utilise traditional techniques to create the glass pieces, which are entirely hand crafted. Aura lights are ideal for private homes or businesses, as well as venues and hotels.

The ceiling light creates a sparkle of light and a seductive atmosphere in any interior space. Aura lights reminds us something from the glory of former times. Aura creates an interplay of light and colour. The ceiling canopy has a chrome finish and the twisted glass pieces are available in white, tea, red or 'rigadin' crystal.

Take a look through the entire Aura Collection and choose from a single or double suspension and a wall light.
