Horse Lamp by Moooi

You will either love it or hate it, that was the statement by the designers of the Animal Thing Project, Front Design. The animals were one of Front's first designs for Dutch brand, Moooi. The Horse Lamp, with the dimensions of a life-size equine, draws the eye of the viewer instantly. It will inevitably become a centrepiece in any space, whether residential, commercial or in hospitality. Horse is as if out of a fairy-tale and into your living room or sitting area. The life-size animal is a unique piece and lets be honest, we all secretly want a horse in our homes; especially one that needs no attention, food or cleaning.

The whimsical and playful Moooi Horse Lamp is part of the Unexpected collection, which includes the Pig, balancing a plate on its back, and the Rabbit, a shy little creature of light. The Horse perfectly balances a black shade on its head, almost like a top hat, emitting a downwards, direct light. An animal to brighten any room and serve your friends and family.
