PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

Designer: Bertjan Pot

Non Random by Moooi

In juxtaposition with the Moooi Random II, Bertjan Pot's Non Random is made of neatly placed resin yarn, in an organised manner while forming a criss-cross pattern. The Non Random is also different to the Random lights, in its shape. While the chaotic Random is a perfectly round ball of epoxy resin "yarn", the Non Random has an imperfectly shaped, tear-dropped shade. It is not only its structure that is non-random, but also the light it emits. While Moooi's Random lights would feel the room with light in every direction, the Non Random emits a downwards directed light via a small reflector.

Functioning both as a light as well as a sculpture, the Non Random is part of the decor, whether in your home or in a professional setting as well as in hospitality environments. The suspension is as elegant as lightweight, and becomes a centre piece in any interior setting. The Non Random pendant is available in black or white, and is available two different diameters: D48 or D71.
