Rabbit Lamp by Moooi

Shy and adorable, the Rabbit table lamp was designed by Front. The designer duo took inspiration from living creatures and created the Animal Thing, an unexpected collection with a trio of life size animals: a horse, a pig and a rabbit. The rabbit might be a shy one, but it definitely draws attention when switched on. The light reflection onto its body, creates the illusion of a soft and fuzzy fur. The lamp is non dimmable and comes with a matching black shade. Place the Rabbit on a side table, a coffee table, your desk or on shelves; either way you'll instantly fall in love with it.

Explore the full Animal Thing Collection with the fierce Horse Lamp and the friendly Pig Table. The Animal family might be an unusual one, but will definitely brighten up your day and bring light and warmth into any interior.
